HERE SUNDAY NIGHT

. . . William H. Carey

William H. Carey, pastor of the Danville Seventh-day Adventist Church, will be guest speaker here Sunday night.

The occasion will be the dedication of a new baptistry picture at the local Adventist Church. The picture, a scenic view of the Jordan River flowing from the background into the baptismal pool, is more than ten feet square. The church authorized the painting under Carey's pastorate, but it has just recently been installed.

Addressing the 7:30 P. M. service, Pastor Carey will speak on the subject of "Foundations." The sermon will be a personal challenge to each individual building a character. Well-known in Appomattox during the four years that he was pastor of the local church, Carey will also sing.

All are invited to the evening program.

Stale cake can be freshened by sprinkling a little cold water over it and then re-heating it slowly in foil or a covered pan.

Add a small amount of orange juice to cream cheese for a delicious topping for gingerbread.

You can prevent cream filling from soaking in by sprinkling a small amount of confectioners' sugar over the cake layer before covering with filling.

To cut cake with a fruit filling, dip the knife in hot water; re-dip the knife before cutting each additional slice.

Cookies made with honey instead of sugar will remain moist for a long time.

Small tears in net curtains can be mended by applying a thin coat of colorless nail polish to the tear and pressing the frayed edges together with your fingers until the polish dries.

To be sure your salt will pour when weather is damp, coat the inside of the metal top of the shaker with a thin layer of paraffin and prick through the holes.
